

COMMISSION OIL PAINTINGS

I am Frank Ferrante, landscape/seascape oil painter and studio painter at The Hub on Canal, New Smyrna Beach. I will celebrate 50 years of painting. I am offering to put that experience to work creating an original oil painting just for you. You choose the subject: your home, a sunset view, a marsh or seaside local, your boat, your vacation cottage, a travel photo, your favorite place on earth. The options are wide open. We will meet at your home or business to determine what size painting works best for the location where it will be displayed. We will discuss subject, color options, composition and price. Then I will paint a small sample for your review, allowing you the opportunity for changes and tweaking. After the size, subject, color palette and price are agreed upon, I will require a 25% deposit before starting the actual painting. The painting is FULLY GUARANTEED. Your 25% will gladly be RETURNED if you do not like the finished painting. NO QUESTIONS ASKED. So you know, I have never had to return a deposit. To explore the idea of a one-of-a-kind, commissioned oil painting, contact me. BIOGRAPHY

Frank graduated Rutgers University and The Newark College of Fine and Industrial Arts. He studied plein air and studio oil painting for over twenty years at the Ridgewood Art Institute with master painter, John P. Osborne - who was influenced by the American Impressionist painter, Frank Vincent DuMond and his 1880's "Prismatic Palette".

Frank taught oil painting for the past twenty years in community schools, universities and privately in his New Jersey studio. He has given oil painting demonstrations throughout the United States and his paintings hang in many galleries. He served on the board of directors at The Ridgewood Art Institute, NJ and the American Artist Professional League, NY

LEARNING IN THE STUDIO AND EN PLEIN AIR

Frank Ferrante teaches landscape and seascape oil painting in a studio and en plein air, the French phrase for "in the open air". He has conducted classes, demonstrations and workshops throughout the United States and has taught in a number of community schools and art schools.

Ferrante's traditional classes, held in a studio, focus on the formal elements of painting - composition, color values, structure, and form. Emphasis is placed on creating a "painter's eye" and on the effects of light. In his en plein air classes, students learn to paint in the classic, Impressionist style. They venture outdoors, where they learn to capture firsthand the shapes, forms and colors of nature's seasonal landscapes.
